

*In Syria and Turkey,
throughout Europe and beyond,
refugees are fleeing violence and despair,
seeking safety, security and a fresh start.
How will we help?*

Jam for Bread...

and water and shelter and hope...

An afternoon of Jazz to benefit Syrian Refugees

Sunday, April 3, 2-4 pm
at Open Spirit (Edwards Hall)
39 Edwards Street, Framingham

No admission charge.
Please give generously to our free-will offering!

Proceeds shared between these refugee-aid organizations rooted in three faith traditions:

NuDay Syria

HIAS

Ascentria Care Alliance

Musicians:

Willie Sordillo,

Ron Mahdi,

Consuelo Candelaria Barry,

Phil McGowan,

Bob Pilkington,

Dave Dubinsky,

Zoë Krohne,

Bruce Cichowlas,

Lisa Durkee... and more

Sponsors include:

Roots & Wings Yoga and Healing Arts; Open Spirit: A Place of Hope, Health and Harmony; First Parish in Framingham, UU; Edwards Church, UCC in Framingham; Protestant Chaplaincy Council's Community Chaplaincy Program; The Plymouth Church in Framingham, UCC; Common Street Spiritual Center, Natick; Temple Beth Am, Framingham; St. Andrew's Episcopal Church

For more information: 508-877-8162

www.openspiritcenter.org